

Vacancies: Department of Pathology

Temporary Demonstrators (two vacancies)

Applications are invited from suitable candidates for the Post of Temporary Demonstrator Department of Pathology.

Qualifications:

MBBS or equivalent (preferably with honors in final and or in 3rd MBBS Part II with Distinctions in Pathology or equivalent will be an advantage)

or

BSc MLS Sp - honors with higher GPA

or

BSc Chemistry or BSc Human Biology or BSc Biotechnology with honors

or

with equivalent other qualifications if you think you are a suitable candidate for this position

Additional competencies required

Good command in English and Sinhala (and Tamil)

Good working knowledge on common Office package, google forms

Apply with a self-prepared application and bio data. Include a half A4 page self-reflection of yourself and why you think that you are a suitable candidate for this post.

Applications should reach Department of Pathology on or before 22/12/2021

Email your application to: kacw@med.ruh.ac.lk and headpathology@med.ruh.ac.lk

Via post or hand delivered to: Head, Department of Pathology, Faculty of Medicine, University of Ruhuna, Karapitiya, Galle

Selection interview date/s and mode shall be informed to all shortlisted candidates by 25/12/2021

Department of Pathology conducts teaching for medical undergraduates during 3rd and 4th year and provide diagnostic and consultative service functions to Professorial unit surgery. In addition, it is an accredited centre for Postgraduate training in Pathology. We provide training to MLS students as well. We have eight academic staff members, including chair professor, three senior lecturers one consultant histopathologist and two consultant haematologists.

Demonstrator in Pathology would be responsible to help academic staff members to conduct teaching learning program efficiently and effectively. In addition, coordinating academic work with students, maintaining schedules, and teaching material, helping preparation of teaching material (digital images/power point), preparation of summaries of feedback, helping quality assurance related work and service functions related work including helping cut up process are expected

Head

Department of Pathology

08/12/2021