PRESENT APPOINTMENT

Senior Lecturer/Consultant in Obstetrics & Gynaecology

Department of Obstetrics & Gynaecology, Faculty of Medicine, University of Ruhuna/ University Academic Unit, Teaching Hospital Mahamodera, Galle, Sri Lanka.

Teaching Hospital Mahamodera is the main tertiary care referral centre for the southern Sri Lanka. It is affiliated to the Faculty of Medicine, University of Ruhuna, Sri Lanka.

As a university academic I participate in student teaching, conducting examinations and involving postgraduate training.

I also work in Teaching Hospital Mahamodara as a board certified specialist. Academic unit is a heavy unit and has approximately 600 deliveries per month including caesarean sections and about 75 major Gynaecology surgeries per month. I involve in patient assessment, management of Obstetrics and Gynaecology patients and supervision of junior staff and also conduct clinics including antenatal, general Gynaecology, subfertility and well women clinics regularly. I carry out caesarean sections and Gynaecology surgeries and engage in various continuing professional development programs. I engage in clinical training of medical undergraduate by doing ward classes, bed side teaching and skill training. I regularly carry out research and audit in the institute.
